Feed Your Mind

Feed your mind, not on the toxicity of the world — all the bad news, problems, troubles and venting through constant complaints and grumbling. Refuse to participate in the ugliness of malicious gossip, evil surmising, and backbiting. But feed your mind on the good, the true, and the beautiful. Our lives will thereby be transformed by the Spirit of God because “those who live according to the Spirit have their minds set on the things of the Spirit” and “the mindset of the Spirit is life and peace” (Rom 8:5-6).

Therefore, brothers and sisters, in view of the mercies of God, I urge you to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God; this is your true worship. Do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may discern what is the good, pleasing, and perfect will of God. (Rom 12:1-2)

Finally brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable — if there is any moral excellence and if there is anything praiseworthy — dwell on these things. (Phil 4:8)

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. (Col 3:1-4) -Doy Moyer home, If men go to hell, who cares? Who cares, who cares, O Lord, cares? While the world rushes on in sin to de-spair; If men go to hell, who care

What would you have if you woke up this morning with only the things you thanked God for yesterday?

Worrying does not take away tomorrow's trouble, it takes away today's peace.

When God solves your problems, you have faith in His abilities. When God doesn't solve your problems He has faith in your abilities.
