Is Your Baptism Valid?

Study Acts 19:1-6.

John’s baptism originated from God (Lk 7:28-30). Yet there was a time when it was no longer valid.

If a baptism that originated from the throne of God could become ineffective. Is it not possible that a person could receive a baptism that is not valid today?

Neither Christ nor the apostles ever taught a “non-essential” baptism. For baptism to be scriptural, and thus effective, the one being baptized needs to understand its saving purpose.

The Scriptures teach that we are to “make your calling and election sure” (2 Pet 1:10). That means we should make it safe and secure. One should know the purpose of baptism. However, this does not mean that every time one has new insight or at every realization of spiritual growth that he must be baptized over again because he didn’t know enough the first time. Sometimes, as Christians grown, they get the idea that they knew so little when they were baptized that somehow their baptism was not valid. But really, all one needed to know was that baptism precedes salvation in order to be scripturally baptized.-db

Victim Or Victor?

Victims cannot forgive or else they lose their identity as a victim. Forgivers cannot be victims even when victimized because their identity is not based on what others do to them, but what God has done for them.

Victims never heal, living only in the past, living a life of hurt and hate. Forgivers are healed and halers, living in the present for the future, living a life fulfilled by Christlikeness. On the cross, Jesus was victimized, but never a victim. Jesus heals by His victory over being victimized. Choose which you will be – victim or victor.
