I LOVE THIS PICTURE

It is a painting of Jesus reaching down into the water and offering to lift up Peter who had begun to sink and was in danger of drowning.

His faith started out strong as he got out of the boat and walked on water, but he started to doubt.

Jesus let him waver, but he didn't let him drown.

If you're wavering, just want you to know, as a Christian, I want to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

So here's me reaching out if you need a hand to lift you up.

From afar, my vision of your life is about as murky as Jesus looking down into these troubled waters.

But Jesus reaches out today, just as He did then.

For this to work, you've got to reach up and let people know you need help. Peter did. (Unknown)

NOW, Is God's Time

Tomorrow, he promised his conscience;
Tomorrow I mean to be good;
Tomorrow I'll think as I ought to;
Tomorrow I'll do as I should.
Tomorrow I'll conquer the habit that
Holds me from heaven away.
But never his conscience repeated
On word, and one only, TODAY.

Tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow,
Thus day after day it went on;
Tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow,
Till youth like a vision, was gone.
Till age and his passion had written
The message of fate on his brow,
And forth from the shadows came death
With a pitiless syllable, NOW! (Unknown)

People don't ask for facts in making up their minds. They would rather have one good, soul-satisfying emotion than a dozen facts.

Greatness depends on who controls us, not on who we control.

A poor listener seldom hears a good sermon.

The church that is described in the Scriptures can be described by the Scriptures.
